

Report to Ringmore Newsletter 19-10-13

“Anyone who missed the concert in the Parish Room on Friday 18th October missed a treat. 90 people attended and were entertained by local people of all ages. Our local young musicians excelled both playing their instruments and with their singing, special mention must be made of Jack Highley’s rendition of “Perpetual Motion”, a very fast moving piece played on his violin. Jo and Paul Woodcock entertained with their folk singing and The Modbury Gospel Singers opened and closed this excellent evening.

Polly Rathbone (Cello), Christie McDougall (Violin), Jo & Paul Woodcock (Guitar & Folk), Phoebe & Jack Thomas (Piano), Izzy Farndon (Piano), Jack Highley (Violin), The Singing Sensations and The Modbury Gospel Singers. The performance was accompanied and conducted by Jo Highley”