Subject Three Cottages at Marwell	Measurements (Sketch with scale overleaf if possible)
Description , history, field notes and other information. (Please fill in a separate sheet for each separate item)  In about 1885, a new Lord of the Manor took over and set about rehabilitating the cottages and farm buildings, which were in a wretched state:- "consisting in Marwell Village of cottages gutted of their contents and converted into stables, bullock houses and the like." These buildings were blown down by a storm. The ruins were cleared away and a model farmyard took their place.		Reference for each piece of information  Rev.F.C.Hingeston-Randolph."Up and Down the Deanary" Supplement to "The Gazette" May 18 th 1888  Tithe Assessment 1841  Ordnance Survey 1809  Mills Questionnaire 1750  Glebe Terrier 1748 refers to the "village" of Marwell	Date of each entry 1992
