

At one time an inn known as "The Rising Sun" The only house in Ringmore with a cellar.

1698	James and Grace Hoopell	1698 Census
1698	Nicholas and Alice Hoopell	"
9 1698	Nicholas and Hester Hoopell	"
1841	John Elliott Hoopell his wife Ann son William and five daughters	Landlord of Rising Tithe Sun Inn and Shopkeeper 1866 PO Directory
1870	Samuel Dunn	Landlord of Rising Sun Inn and Shopkeeper
1873	Robert Willcock Randall his wife Elizabeth and seven children	Landlord of Rising Sun Inn; Farmer and Coal-dealer Son of Robert Randall of Cross Manor Grandson of Thomas Randall(4) of Lower Farm and second-cousin of the landlord of the Journey's End Inn
1886	W. Goodman	Post Master
1887-1936	George and Anna Freeman and their daughter Mrs Medway	Post Master and Village Carrier Anna died 1917 George died 1936
1935-1934	Mr and Mrs Medway	Post Mistress Daughter of Mr and Mrs Freeman Sister of Mrs Smale of Marwell
1948-1983	Mr and Mrs Jeffery	Rented out as Holiday Cottage Tenants included Mr A Moore and Mr and Mrs Elson
1983-1984	Reg (Carl) and Sheila Carlisle	Moved from Three Corners Re-named cottage "Old Inn Cottage" Moved to Kingswear
1984-1981	Mrs Sally Davis	Moved to Wembury
1991-	Michael and Jackie Tagent	Restored name of Challaborough Cottage Built extension at rear