

Formerly the farmhouse of Lower Farm - 160 acres in 1851 employing 6 labourers.

1725	Thomas(6) and Elizabeth Randle sons Thomas James and Robert
1779	Thomas(5) and Olive Randle sons Thomas(4) and Peter(3)	Son of Thomas(6) Died 1812
1812	Thomas(4) and Honor Randle sons John James William Peter(4) and Robert Apprentices: William Randle and John Ryder.	Son of Thomas(5) Died 1828
1828-1875	John and Agnes Crimp sons: John, William, Thomas and Garland. daughters: Agnes and Francis. servants: Elizabeth Manion, William Triggs, Matilda Ryder, John Beer and George Ryder.	Moved from Tufflands	Tithe In 1851 John Garland Crimp Census was assessor and collector of income tax and land tax. Bought Inn and built Hillside adjoining it. Moved to Hillside
1878, 1897	John and Emma Harris		writes
1889	The Misses Heathcote
1899, 1902, 1907	George and Annabella Baker
1910, 1914 1917	Charles Brown and his son Leslie
1919, 1923	Charles Colwill	Farm owned by Mr Tanner
1926	Albert Colwill
1933	Frederick and Altha Colwill
1935-1942	George and Ivy Luggar and their son William
1943-47	Harold and Madge Brook	Bought the farm and its cottages (including Rose Cottage, Mount Pleasant and Middle Manor) Lived at Barnford.
1943	Mr and Mrs Knapp	Tenant Farmers
1945	Mr and Mrs Marriott	Tenant farmers
1947-1954	Mr and Mrs Good	Owners of farm, including 50 acres previously owned by Middle Manor. Land farmed by Ernie White who lived at Mt Pleasant

1954-1961	Major D.G.Thornburgh	Owner of Farm
1961-1984	Mr and Mrs Wells	Owner of Farm. Built Ayrmer House in a farm field as a holiday home, leaving a farm manager in the farmhouse
1965-1984	Jim and Ella Dodds and their daughters Deborah Sarah and Rebecca	Farm Manager Moved to Ayrmer House
1984 1994	Richard Perraton, his wife and daughters Margaret and Julie. Mr and Mrs Jenson	Owner of Farm Sold farm land to The National Trust and the house as a private residence.
1975-	Converted house to a modern home	Holiday Home