DESCRIPTION

	Church of All Saints	Mainly late 13th Century with lateral tower and spire. The North transept has two round headed slits which may be 12th Century. Base of tower serves as porch and has plain barrel vault. Interesting as being an unaltered fabric - a rare occurrence in Devon. Interior drastically 'restored' in 19th Century.
III	Barnford	An L-shaped house of 17th Century origin with irregular elevation. Rubble, cob and thatched with brick and plastered stacks. 2S sashes and casements.
II+	Wychwood (formerly Rock Villa) Rock Cottage Rose Cottage	An irregular block, probably of 17th Century origin. Plastered walls and thatched roofs with brick and rubble stacks. 2S sashes and casements. One has porch with lean-to roof and wood cambered doorway. Group value.
II	Cross Manor (formerly Cottage Farm)	A picturesque house, which appears to be mainly 18th Century, but the core may be earlier. Irregular outline. Plastered walls and thatched roofs. Brick and rubble stacks. 2S casements with leaded lights. Four window front. Porch with lean-to slate roof. Interior much renovated. Group value.
III	Hill Cottage (Nos 1 & 2)	Pair of cottages. Plastered and thatched with brick and rubble stacks. 2S casements. Three window front. No.1 has porch with lean-to slate roof. 18th Century?
III	Smugglers (House 30 yards S.W. of Nos. 1 & 2)	A long building in plastered rubble with thatched roof and plastered stacks. 2S casements. Seven window front. Projection in front. Early 18th Century?
III	Rose Cottage (Pair 240 yards W of church)	Plastered walls with thatched roof and brick stacks. 2S wood casements. Five window front. Exposed ceiling beams. Probably 17th Century.
III	Walnut Tree Cottage (House 120 yards W of church)	Plastered with hipped thatch roof and brick stacks. 2S wood casements. Four window front. 18th Century?
III	Cumberland Cottages Nos. 1 to 4.	L shaped. Plastered rubble and cob with thatched roofs. Rubble stacks. 2S casements. Two-storeyed bay window. 17th Century and later.
