Enigma

July

Last month's competition produced a 50% increase in the number of competitors. Now we have three! The welcome newcomer hides behind the catchy nom-de-plume 'Yog-sothoth'. This gives rise to the anagram 'Gosh Toothy' which is equally mystical. However, the name is not a handicap as the solution is correct. Of our two stalwarts, only The Matchman was on fire this month and his solution is published. Alas Doreen, despite a womanful attempt, needed 10 matches to achieve a solution. Thank you all for having a go; now try this month's puzzle.

Fill in the numbers

Using all nine positive numbers only once and also the four arithmetical operations, fill in the squares so that the expressions are correct.

$$\square - \square = \square$$

$$\square \div \square = \square$$

$$\square + \square = \square$$

This is simple, so be bold and send your answer to the editors.

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH

If anything arouses your suspicion at any time, night or day, immediately call Kingsbridge Police, telephone 852326 and if you cannot get through, dial 999. Don't hesitate, let the Police decide whether or not it is a false alarm.

PARISH CHURCH PAGE

In the midst of all the pressures the Prime Minister seems to be undergoing at this time I heard him say - and I don't doubt he's said it on many occasions recently - that he and his government have declared policies and, come what may, they will stick to them and endeavour to carry them through. Well, as the political turmoil develops, we shall see how Mr. Major fares, but in taking notice of his situation I could not help noticing some similarity between State and Church.

In practical terms, not many folk nowadays have much time for the Church, whereas a great many feel they can put the finger on where it has gone wrong and make some positive suggestions on how it should put things to rights! But the Church has "declared policies" too, and they are not for turning either! I don't mean details of manners and language, but the unchanging truths about Christ and His work in the world. How often I've said it - and once again, without apology -

"Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today and for ever."

GREENPEACE GREENPEACE

During the first week in July there will be a collection for Greenpeace. This organisation's presence has brought to the public's notice many environmental issues, which would be hidden or fudged by politicians or other vested interests. The methods used are of necessity direct on occasions but what is a whale, a clean sea or a rainforest worth?

Should you feel that Greenpeace deserves your support and I hope you do, please place your donation in the envelope provided which I would be grateful if you could return to Ivy Cottage. Should you want me to collect please let me know and I will be pleased to do this. Thank you for your support.

WOMEN IN THE COMMUNITY

Twenty W I members, husbands and friends made the journey to the Theatre Royal, Plymouth to see how that city came "Out of the Rubble" and unfolded its story of the next 50 years.

Our thanks to George and Nancy for inviting us to their home for the Bar-B-Q in aid of the Children's Hospice and to all of you who came. We hope you enjoyed the evening.

At the W.I. monthly meeting on July 13th Thelma Mann will be instructing us on the art of DECOUPAGE. Anyone is welcome at 8.15 p.m., but bring a pair of scissors, tweezers and a fine black felt pen with you.

On July ~~13th~~^{15th} we shall be enjoying the Safari Supper, hosted at Hill Cottage by Natalie & Ardene, then on to Frank & Diana at the Paddock, and ending the evening with Michael & Jackie at Challaborough Cottage.

Modbury School Overcrowding In the report Mrs Angela Carson told us that a full time assistant had been recently appointed to the school in order to help alleviate the situation. The proceeds of a booklet published on the National Curriculum was also helping to provide funds and may eventually lead to the provision of an additional classroom.

Community Policing WPC Fallah reiterated that if and when anyone noticed anything suspicious would they telephone the police first - preferably ask for her personally, and then contact neighbourhood watch.

Church Heating System Councillor Tagent reported that the heating system was now operational and a new tank would be in situ to the rear of the church shortly.

Car Parking Ringmore Further enquiries concerning car parking spaces will be made before the next meeting when provision on the agenda will be made for discussion.

Traffic Calming Further clarification is being sought regarding the effectiveness and height of the strips before any decisions are made.

Skip Service No decision yet on alternative arrangements, but a letter of concern is being sent to the required authorities.

Playground Facilities The cost of funding a site and providing equipment could be quite astronomical, but with funding it is possible. However, Councillor Tate, Chairman, told us that Mr Rogers, the manager of Bigbury Bay Holiday Park, was quite willing for the play area in the park to be used by residents of the Parish, and residents were also invited to use the entertainment hall. Mr Neil Cleary, the manager of Haven Leisure Park in Challaborough has also stated that the play facilities of the park are available and the swimming pool can also be used as a paying facility by the residents of Ringmore Parish during the holiday season.

South Hams District Councillor, Mr Anstey, reminded us of (1) the Piper Lifeline alarm system for the elderly, and (2) the availability of a composting shredder on hire for anyone interested in forming a garden composting group as has been recently started in Bigbury.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION VJ MEMORIAL SERVICE

It has been found necessary to bring forward the date of the VJ Memorial Service at Bigbury Church. It will now take place on Sunday 13th August 1995 at 11.00 a.m., which is in fact closer to the actual VJ date.

The address will be given by the Rev. John V. Davies, an old colleague of Rev. Drowley. Rev. Davies saw service in South East Asia during the war years, and his first hand views should be most interesting.

The special service will conclude with a procession to the war memorial where we hope to have a bugler sounding the "Last Post" and "Reveille", prior to the laying of wreaths.

We look forward to your support for the 50th Anniversary of the end of the last World War, and to celebrate 50 years of relative peace even though it has been uneasy at times.
