Barbara Drabble

It is with sadness that we record the death of Barbara Drabble. Perhaps not well known in the village, yet a resident for 30 years or so, Barbara had been wheel-chair bound for the last few years but was always most valiant in looking forward to better things and showed the greatest courage in her long illness. She maintained a lively interest in all village affairs although unable to join in them; a woman of education, she spoke several languages and could argue in most of them! Until the last phase of her illness, she was learning Russian. At one stage of her career, she had been on the staff of the London School of Economics. Barbara's friends and associates will miss her sorely. Farewell to a brave spirit.

A VERY HAPPY PROSPEROUS AND PEACEFUL NEW YEAR

Generally it appears to have been an uneventful holiday for most people with nothing to interrupt the celebrations. Nothing such as the fires in Australia in which the Editor and Proofreader have a personal interest. A first-hand report said that for the city of Sydney it is a worrying time. The firefighters are holding the line but there is no sign of a let up in the weather. For those of you who think of Sarah and Derek Eastway, they live in Bondi, a Sydney suburb, which is about as far from the fires as you can get without falling into the Tasman Sea. Fingers crossed.

Ringmore has a quiet month ahead but January usually is. The Journey's End will be closed for most of the first full week of the month but it is running a number of events. Don't miss Burns' Night on 25th or the Inter-Parish Quiz on 22nd when Ringmore take on Ugborough. Your support at the JE would be welcomed by the team.

The Queen's Golden Jubilee Celebrations will be in June this year and Ringmore will have an event of its own. Your suggestions are invited by the Parish Room Committee, to be added to the arrangements in hand. As has been said before, this will be only the fifth Golden Jubilee in our history. Elizabeth must reign until November 2015 to reign longer than Victoria, when she will be 88 years and 11 months. She will become our oldest reigning monarch, 81 years 9 months, in January 2008, passing both George III and Victoria.

This year's Enigma competition has been won by the Matchman with a 36-point maximum. Many thanks to everyone who took part. New entrants would be welcome. Have a go!

Thank you to the person who provided the dates for the library van visits for this year.

Neighbourhood Watch reports that a grey Peugeot 205 GTI is being sought. The registration number is E430 UWL. Look out for it.

Apologies for the lateness of the Newsletter this month. It is due, in the main, to holidays at the printers and the Editor's absence.

SHOW ME THE WAY

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown". And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way".

M Louise Haskins; quoted by King George VI in his Christmas broadcast, December 25th 1939.

WHY?

There's so much suffering in the world – genocide in the Sudan, war in Afghanistan, the atrocities of September 11th, troubles in Northern Ireland, the growing violence and murder in the Middle East. Closer to home, we think of the victims of crime, the bereaved and those suffering from injury or disease, and cry out: why? Why is our grand-daughter Christina again in pain from cancer (this time in her spine)?

If there is no God, there is no answer, and life is just a lottery – so put up with it. But if there is a God, why does he allow these things? Because we are not robots, we can (and frequently do) act against God's will – the technical word is "sin". Justice demands that sin is punished, and God will do so in good time. But he is also a God of mercy who forgives us when we repent and allows us "time for amendment of life".

But Christina is not ill because of her sins, or of anyone else's. Why some suffer illness and not others remains a mystery. And in these cases we can either reject God or trust him. The Bible assures those who trust him that "nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus". The one who died for us on the cross is with us in our sorrows and heartache. When we entrust ourselves to him, we know he will be with us in this life, and we shall be with God in the eternal life of peace and joy which follows.

Jackie and Michael Tagent

Journey's End Journal

After a hectic Christmas and New Year we like most of Ringmore are going to have a few days rest in early January. However in our case we will also have workmen in to do some of the changes that we have planned.

We re-open with some Jazz, on Friday 11th, so why not come and see Johny Wurr, live.

We need guiz masters for our January Quizzes starting 17th. Jan. Don't forget Burns' Night on Friday 25th Jan, and The Chinese New Year Banquet on Friday 15th February, we are taking bookings now for both of these.

WOMEN IN THE COMMUNITY

The Ringmore WI Christmas party and dinner was held at the Journey's End on Wednesday 12th December and was voted a 'jolly good evening' - good company, good food and drink. Have I left anything out?

It is always enjoyed anyway and with the WI Hall improvements going apace, we'll have plenty to celebrate next year.

The WI Carol Service was very well attended, not only by our own members but also by several other contingents from surrounding villages. The Rev Elliott and Michael Tagent conducted the service and gave us the first taste of Christmas. Refreshments were of fellowship and warmth.

On 6th February HM Queen Elizabeth II will celebrate her 50th year on the throne of the United Kingdom. This landmark will be officially marked in June and the Parish Room Committee has begun preparations.

The proposal is that we have a village function for villagers, their family and special local friends. There are people who spend a lot of time in the village and if they wish to join us then it is felt that they should be welcome. Obviously numbers have to be controlled and if we all bring half a dozen relatives and friends we could end up with over 600! Such a number is beyond our resources but every attempt will be made to accommodate your guests.

The programme is skeletal at the moment but will probably comprise an outdoor musical evening preceded by a barbecue with activities for the children. Wilf Walters, who farms the NT land, has agreed to let us use the barn by the NT car park so access will be easy and we will have some served later which rounded off and afternoon protection should it rain. Music will be provided by a 5 or 6 piece band led by Janet and John from Park Bench Aristocrats.

> Much more detail has to be arranged and this will be decided gradually in the coming weeks. Cost is an important factor and every attempt will be made to keep ticket prices to no more than £10. To do this funds will have to be raised. The Parish Room Committee will contribute and a request will be made to all other organisations in the village including the Parish Council. Every one of these groups is funded by the village so it is not unreasonable to seek support.

> More will be reported as events progress but in the meantime, if you have any suggestions for the celebration please contact one of the Parish Room Committee members:-

The Council met to consider a Listed Building Application by Mr Grahame Gilliam of the Journey's End Inn.

The creation of a new store, alterations to the kitchen and the removal of the access to the Gents' Toilet do not require planning permission but the Council made the following comments.

1. It is assumed that if permission is granted then the planners are satisfied that the materials are in keeping with a listed building.

2. It is assumed that if permission is granted then the planners are satisfied that the alterations to the kitchen do not contravene any Health and Safety conditions.

The Council recognises that these changes could be a precursor to an application to create a car park at the rear of the Inn.

An ABC for Ringmore 'A is not for 'orses'

Di Collinson has written an ABC for Ringmore in aid of Church funds. It is a gentle look at the virtues, physical or otherwise of the village and is intended to remind visitors of the pleasures of their visit.

A is for Ayrmer; E is for Echium; K is for Kissing Gates; Y is for the Yew tree, to mention a few of the alliterative couplets. Particularly memorable, of course, is N is for Newsletter, twelve times a year, Highly informative, helpful and clear!!

To obtain a copy, which has colourful illustrations by Mary Smallwood, call Di on 810286. At only £2 the ABC makes an ideal gift for friends and visitors and your purchase will provide much needed funds for the restoration programme at All Hallows.

TABLE 🦳 TENNIS

Here's hoping that you had a most fulfilling Christmas in whichever way you celebrated and that any New Year's resolutions are still holding firm.

If you sat looking at and feeling an unwanted spare tyre, why not come along to Table Tennis in the Parish Room on Tuesday evenings from 7.30pm - 9.30pm.

The club has had a very successful year culminating in the Red Red Party at the end of November. This proved a great success and thanks go to the organising committee and especially you, the villagers, who entered into the spirit of the occasion with great gusto. It even carried over to the following day when quite a lot of 'Red Eyes' were spotted around the village.

A Happy New Year to you all; I hope to see some of you on a Tuesday evening.

December SOLUTION

We have a winner!

Six entries to bring the 2001 competition to an exciting close. One was a new entrant, Christmas Cracker, and it is to be hoped that this was not just a seasonal foray.

What was it about the word 'sexuality' which lulled half of you into thinking that it was the longest word? Christmas Cracker, New Dawn and Real Sleuth all fell into the trap. Gemini. The Beginners and Matchman were not deceived. Suffice it to say that the result depended on the answers received from the latter two. The Beginners were right and so did all they could to win but Matchman came through strongly at the finish to claim the bv finding spoils the word SEARCHINGLY.

The final scores are as follows:

Matchman 36 The Beginners 34 Gemini 32 The Furry Boys 29 Gemini 24 New Dawn 18 Taurus

Occasional entries were received from Su Da Nim, Sue Brickay, The Opals and Christmas Cracker. If everyone enters during 2002 there will be a splendid competition. How about some newcomers. You can see how easy it is to hide behind a name; what does it matter if you get it wrong, you will get one point for trying. So, it is 'Well Done' from Enigma to our winner and to all who took part. It remains for the victor to indicate how the prize is to be delivered.

News from Fare Deals Travel Services, January 2002

Firstly, A Happy New Year to you All.

During the past few months, some people have been unhappy about the idea of flying and are now wondering where they can safely go on holiday. Here are a few suggestions which might be of interest.

First of all, what about Britain? Fare Deals Travel Services can arrange holidays for you with such well-known names as Blakes, Best Western, CentreParcs, Embassy Leisure, Highlife, Hoseasons, Haven, London Travel Service, Rainbow and many other companies. Then, a little further away, the Scilly Isles, holidays in the Channel Islands, Isle of Man and Ireland.

The whole of Europe is your syster by ferry, car and rail. Short breaks, long breaks, whatever you choose, Fare Deals Travel Services can make the arrangements for you. Camping in France, basking on a beach in Benidorm, can all be arranged without you having to put a foot in an aeroplane (or take up residence in an airport, whilst waiting for your flight to paradise). FDTS can book your ferry, campsite, hotel, Eurostar - you have only got to ask.

For those who are happy to take to the air (with an engine and wings, of course), you can now fly to The Gambia, on Fridays, from Bristol - 2 hours further south than the Canaries, warmer and less humid (and pretty much within the same time zone, so no jetlag). From Exeter (subject to availability, which normally sells out very quickly) you can get to Canada, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Malta, Cyprus, Canary Isles, Crete, Majorca, Menorca, Ibiza, Rhodes, Tunisia, Turkey, Austria, France, Switzerland - some of these are seasonal.

There are also a few 'Specials' from Exeter: Just for a Day - Rome, February 11th; Prague March 12th; Iceland April 23rd. Two dates for Madeira Short Breaks, March 2nd and 9th, for 7 nights.

If you want to go further afield, FDTS will be happy to make the arrangments for you.

Tailor-made holidays can be arranged to suit your precise requirements at competive prices, within Europe or worldwide. Also, of course, FDTS can arrange airport hotels and parking, insurance cover, travellers cheques and currency (even Euros).

In most instances payment can be made by credit or switch cards, for small fee.

Fare Deals Travel Services is part of the Premier Travel Group, is a member of ABTA and also has the necessary ATOL cover, so you can book with complete confidence. The Premier Travel Group is affiliated to Midconsort and is therefore often able to negotiate travel arrangements at very competitive rates.

Biggest is not always best - small can be very beautiful in the travel business.
