Bacchus Baughn

Anyone who knew Bacchus will be saddened to learn that he died in October, days short of his ninetieth birthday. He and his wife Joan lived at Walnut Tree Cottage for around forty years before they moved in the late nineties to Chudleigh to be near their son. Bacchus and Joan met early in the war when Bacchus was a pilot and married some ten years later. During his time in the Village Bacchus was Chairman of the Parish Council. Bacchus always had a twinkle in his eye; 5.50pm was known as 'ten minutes to scotch'! He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

We send our condolences to Joan and the family.

Christmas Presents

I was once a typical male who rushed out on Christmas Eve to buy a present for his wife, or even two, presents that is! I have changed, Pam's special Christmas card was purchased more than 12 months ago. It upset the routine so much that I forgot to give it to her in 2002, so it sits in my brief case ready for this year. It would have been sitting alongside a CD by the Italian who keeps singing songs to her, not a talent I have in my repertoire. The problem arose when she saw the same CD on very cheap offer in Tesco, and I had to stop her buying it, so all was revealed.

Well nearly all was revealed, because we had an early exchange of presents, for Pam had a book by one of my favourite authors, Susan Howatch, in the same shopping basket. This is the lady who rose to international fame with historical sagas, and then gained her reputation as the present age Trollope with her Starbridge novels based in a fictitious but remarkably realistic Church and Cathedral setting. That series was finished some time ago, and her last three efforts have been about City types. The one that would have been in my stocking is 'The Heartbreaker' (ISBN 0 7515 3550 8 a Time Warner paperback; available from Wordwise, Fore Street, Kingsbridge and other good book shops £6.99). It is a superb story with romance and adventure, but also challenging and thought provoking. It contains many four letter words, and is about an industry you would not expect a Church Minister to be recommending for your Christmas read.

Some in the Church may be appalled that I recommend it, for it challenges religious views, and pushes prejudices to the limit. Forget American Gay Bishops, this goes into places where I sincerely believe that you will not have been physically, and some will find it stretching to go there mentally and emotionally. I hope the Bigbury Book Club has the bottle to tackle it, and I hope it arrives in many a Christmas stocking. I then look forward to all the flack and conversation that might be stirred.

They say that love is a four letter word spelt R-I-S-K, so I take a risk in this recommendation. Whether you buy it for yourself, a loved one or not at all I trust that the greatest risk taker of all will be present as you celebrate his birthday.

PARISH NEWSLETTER

*In a drear-nighted December, Too happy, happy tree, Thy branches ne'er remember, Their green felicity.
Keats wrote when he was probably out of sorts. December has never seemed quite like that. The build up to Christmas has a familiarity for those who have seen more than one but whatever your reasons for celebrating the occasion, it always seems to measure up.*

*To set us on the way there is a fortieth birthday to celebrate.
Awa'the lads! Then we have the GALAXY GIG for which there are a few tickets left. This fancy dress evening has become a fixture in the December calendar - don't miss it.*

After the splendid Rugby breakfasts which Mark and the team put on at the JE, there are the Christmas and New Year's dinners to anticipate. Here, we should welcome Ralph and Lizzie and wish them a happy time at the JE.

Tide Tables for 2004 are available - call 810123.

2003 in Ringmore started with the Ps & Qs evening in January which was also the first full month of the management change *at the JE. February was quiet but March had its moments with the annual JB TT tournament and the Table-top games night at the JE. Ringmore beat South Brent in the IPQ. In April there was a popular wine tasting evening at the JE followed by the even more popular Beer Festival. The Newsletter short story competition attracted a number of creative entries. May saw a revived interest in the Parish Council with 10 candidates and Rob Batten 'retired' from the Chair after five years service.

Ringmore lost to Brixton in the semi-final of the IPQ. June gave way to July to mark Margaret Lock's eightieth birthday.
August saw an event that many doubted would come to pass.
The Millennium clock was finally installed in the church tower and very soon, it seemed to have been there forever. The two summer fetes were well supported as was the Newsletter Quiz.
Autumn smoke began to curl into blue skies which lasted well into November. The British Legion had its record year.*

So we remember those who have moved on; we congratulate those who have celebrated milestones this year; we think of those who are no longer with us and we celebrate the renewal of life. 2004 will have to be good to beat it. It is up to us to ensure that it is.

The Bigbury, Ringmore & Kingston branch of The Royal British Legion

Another year of Poppy Appeal has gone by and we have achieved an historic milestone. As we gradually completed the counting of boxes we knew we were getting close. Finally, when we had added the totals for all the various activities and included 'bits and pieces', we knew that for the first time, our total had passed the £5,000 mark by the huge sum of £1! This year's good weather and the wonderful support which you always give, have proved to be a winning combination.

The funds were raised in the following ways.

During the Beer Festival at the Journey's End, we raffled a bottle of spirits on each of the nights and raised £330. Thanks Mark.

The Auction, was held at the Pickwick this year by permission of Paul Clement. An evening of successful selling by Rob Batten realised £1,611.50. The event was well organised by Alan and Robbie McCarthy ably assisted on the night by Colin Jackson, Chris Roberts and Phill Errett.

After the fireworks and bonfire on November 5th, the Legion held a draw night at the Royal Oak, thanks to Martin Uren. He and Tony Walters ran a great draw for a gallon of whisky and other prizes, raising £300.

Sue Freeman and our friends at Loddiswell raised £125 at a Whist Drive.

Thanks to Mrs Joan Smith, we gathered for a Coffee Morning at Sedgewell Sands, Bigbury-on-Sea. The Cake stalls and Bring & Buy plus 3 raffles brought in a record £372.85.

The Remembrance Service this year was held at Kingston Church and was conducted by Revd John Elliott, assisted by Reader John Tagent. A splendid service was highlighted by a thought-provoking sermon, taking as its theme 'We will remember them'. The service concluded with the laying of wreaths at the War Memorial at which we were delighted to have the assistance of a contingent of our local scouts. A collection of £24.30 was taken.

The final fund-raising event was a Whist Drive, organised by the Ladies' branch in the WI Hall which added a further £71 to the total.

The significant moment of 11-11-11 was observed outside the church in Kingston.

Meantime, during this fortnight, our lady 'house-to-house' collectors had been taking advantage of the good weather and rattling their collection boxes to good effect. Between them they collected a record £1,256.54, a splendid reward for their hard work. In addition, the boxes in pubs, clubs and shops added a further £548.30 to the Appeal.

The wonderful total means that our three small parishes have contributed close to £4 per head of the population to the Poppy Appeal.

THANK YOU ALL FOR YOUR WONDERFUL SUPPORT FOR A WORTHY CAUSE.

Journey's End Journal

G'day from all at the JE.

the month.

We have had a busy month as the good weather has continued to bring in the visitors.

Quiz night continues to be well supported and we have enough quiz masters for this month but we would like volunteers for January onwards.

During November we welcomed Ralph Nuttall, our new Chef, and his wife Lizzie who can be found behind the bar. They are an experienced team and we feel sure that our customers will enjoy the service which they provide.

We are taking bookings for our two big events of the month. We are serving a traditional Christmas Lunch with alternatives for those who prefer something different.

The highlight of the month took place a long way from here - in Australia. We all enjoyed the build up to the final stages of the Rugby World Cup finals. For the semi-final against France we had 20 or so enthusiasts who enjoyed the match in the comfort of the bar and many had a 'full English' or a bacon sandwich.

Our New Year's Eve dinner has a beach party theme and you may interpret that how you wish! Come and enjoy the party atmosphere and see in the New Year.

On Saturday 22nd nearly 40 Rugby fans met for the final. The affair was spiced by some rivalry in the bar. Although Wallaby fans were heavily outnumbered, their team kept them in the match until Johnny Wilkinson delivered the coup de grace and England had deservedly won.

We started 2003 with a clean slate and with your help we hope we have created an atmosphere which is enjoyed by all our customers. The Curry Nights and the Steak Nights have proved to be very popular and 'Early Doors' on Friday evening continues to be a good time to meet friends and neighbours.

December promises to be a busy time as we build up to the festivities at the end of

We look forward to 2004 with the hope that you will continue to enjoy the service and atmosphere at the Journey's End.

BOWEN TECHNIQUE NEW ADDRESS

I am a fully qualified (International Guild of Professional Practitioners; Bowen Technique Academy of Australia) Complementary Medicine Practitioner and Therapist. I have been practising in the area for eight years. I have treatment rooms in Wembury and Modbury and in response to demand I am available in Kingston on Saturday mornings for anyone who is unable to make weekday appointments.

I specialise in Pain Relief through the use of the Bowen Technique. This is a method which originated in Australia and which achieves almost immediate relief.

In addition I offer many other forms of treatment including Aromatherapy, Reflexology, Thai Massage and Healing, M.E., Childhood disorders and many others.

Please see my advertisement for the full range of treatment offered. Why not call me if you think I can help you?

Sue and Adrian Muller phoned recently to confirm their new address. In the middle of November they moved into their new home in the small community of St Sigismond, near Cluses, midway between Geneva and Chamonix where their daughter Mandy lives.

The house has five bedrooms and three cellars as well as spectacular mountain views. At the moment Adrian feels that their time will be occupied by work on the house and garden but they will be pleased to see any friends who happen to be passing. Their new address is:

BIGBURY FAYRE

Bigbury Fayre will again be having the usual Carols around the Christmas tree on Christmas Eve. This all should start at about 6.30ish. The Revd John Elliott will be saying a few words and our usual musicians will be playing. If anybody else wants to join in with their musical talents, please call Denise on 810329. She will then tell you when practice nights are. We will be having the traditional mulled wine, mince pies and sausage rolls. Let's hope the weather is on our side again and we hope to see you there on the night.

Above Ringmore

The following poem was submitted by John Bracey. It was written by a summer visitor, Sue Burley. Ringmore obviously impresses itself on visitors even in the short time that they are here.

At Ringmore, All Hallows stands proud above the deep-cut Devon lanes.
A tractor, fat tyres higher than a man pulls silage uphill between steep hedges.

Sheep drift clouding the falling fields.
From the churchyard the sea gints pewter in the cleft of the valley, the soft air full of fragrant herbage, the faint taste of salt.

Above Ringmore, sweetwilliams bunch in jars guard headstones with epitaphs in curlicue script, mourn dead babies and wives gone too soon,
"The Lord giveth, the Lord taketh away".

At noon sea mist curls in drenching our faces, wrapping the frigates out of Plymouth, sinuous between the laurel's salt-scoured leaves;
summer seems gone yet this is only June.

Bells ring from a distant tower,
the air so still for once, the birds silent.
The earth moves through us; we turn our backs for the last time, fearful that it might stop.

RINGMORE PARISH COUNCIL

Meeting: Tuesday 18th November 2003
Present: Five councillors; the Clerk;
Mr Ross Kennerley, Tree and Wildlife
Warden, SHDC; Mr Brian Carson, District
Cllr., Mrs Jan Roberts, Tree Warden; Mr
David Young, Neighbourhood Watch; Mr
Guy Eddy, Millennium Committee and 2 members of the public.
Apologies: Cllrs R Batten and T Mann.

Mr. Ross Kennerley

Three methods of protecting trees: 1) preservation order; 2) a conservation area necessitating an application for permission to fell a tree over 3" in diameter, 6 weeks before the work is to be done; 3) Forestry Commission licence required for a volume over 5 cu.m. Application forms and advice may be obtained from Tree Wardens, Jane Guy and Jan Roberts. It is the responsibility of householders to provide 18 feet (5.50m) vertical clearance above the carriageway along the boundary of their property. No permission is required for this work but Ross Kennerley would appreciate being advised.

Matters Arising

Dog Fouling – the cost and placing of bins will be considered. Notices have been received.

Bullhorn Cross – a new signpost has been erected without the name of Bullhorn Cross on it. The Clerk will advise the Bigbury Parish Council.

District Council Matters

Second home owners will pay 90% of council tax. Not yet known how the extra revenue will be allocated for expenditure.

It is necessary for the District Council to cut costs. There will no longer be a collection of garden waste from households.

8,350 houses are to be built in the South Hams before 2016.

Footpaths

PSA survey completed but will be several weeks before report issued. Will probably be necessary to do some work and tree trimming.

Finance

Payments were made to the Audit commission and for the cutting of the Town Well. A cost breakdown of maintaining the Churchyard was received from the PCC.

Planning Applications

To fell 7 sycamores and 3 alders at All Hallows Church, Ringmore. The Parish Council had no objection.

An appeal against planning refusal of Avglan Fell has been made to the Secretary of State. Parish Council to comment that not opposed to development but felt that original application was more sympathetic to environment that subsequent application which has been refused.

Approval

The District Council has approved the demolition of 28 chalets by Parkdean

Refusal

District Council has refused application for alterations at Old School House.

Neighbourhood Watch

David Young reported an attempt to force the lock on his shed. He urged everyone to be vigilant.

Welcome Letter

St Luke's Hospice Plymouth

Good news again - you have given £173.83, St Luke's are most grateful.

Their statutory help amounts only to one quarter of their annual costs. The majority comes from fund raising such as ours, so we make a very real contribution towards the cost of the current 700 patients and their families. Thank you.

WOMEN IN THE COMMUNITY

The November meeting of the W.I. was the Annual General Meeting. Our treasurer, Jane Stevenson, presented a healthy balance sheet, and was re-elected for the coming year. Gill Tomlin gave a resume of the activities of the past year, and thanked the committee, especially Sally Errett, the secretary, and members of the Institute for their support. Margaret Wood presented Gill with a bouquet of flowers to thank her for all her hard work during her two years as president, but owing to business commitments she was not standing for re-election. The elections took place, and the following were elected for 2003:

Jackie Tagent	- President
Gill Tomlin	- Vice President
Sally Errett	- Secretary
Jane Stevenson	- Treasurer
Alice Mason	- Hall Officer
Margaret Wood	- Committee

Sally Errett presented Margaret Wood with a pot plant to say thank you for being vice-president for so many years, and added that we were all pleased that Margaret was happy to stay on the committee. The evening concluded with wine and cheese laid on by Gill.

Our December meeting is the Christmas Dinner at the J.E on Thursday 11th December at 7.30 p.m. Copies of the menu are available from Sally (810547); please book in advance. In January we have a talk by Alison Atkinson on "The History of the Bra" (see our block advertisement elsewhere)

Last Month SOLUTION

Sometimes the editor does not know his left from his right but that is not a problem for this month's entrants. The Opals, The Beginners, Champion Matchman, Taurus, Gemini, New Dawn and Yapping Dogs successfully continued the intense competition. However there will be a new champion, one from three possibilities. It will be a question of nerve and Enigma chicanery in the event of a tie.

	J	F	M	A	M	J	J	A	S	O	N	Tot
The Opals	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	33
The Beginners	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	30
Taurus	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	33
Gemini	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	27
Champ Match	2	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	29
Easter Bunny	2	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	8
Sue Brickay	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	9
Real Sleuth	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3
New Dawn	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	3	27

Blue Heaven												3
Blue Moon												3

Corrected after pitiful lobbying!

This Month

So, we come to the last lap. The competition demands a degree of difficulty. Of course, one man's difficulty is another man's . . .

FINGERING the ALIENS

- * There is more than one alien.
- * Each alien has the same number of fingers.
- * Each alien has at least one finger on each hand.
- * In the room, the total number of fingers is between 200 and 300.
- * If you knew the total number of fingers in the room, you would know the number of aliens.
- * How many aliens are there?

Good Luck!

FANCY AN EVENING OUT?

We have booked seats for the 60th Spectacular Year of 'Holiday on Ice' at Westpoint Exeter on Thursday 19th February 2004.

We shall travel by coach, leaving Ringmore at 5.30pm and the cost is £16 for the Ice Show and £4.20 for the coach. This is not just for WI members but for ANYONE in the village who would like to come. Contact Gill Tomlin on 810028.

FOR THAT LITTLE XTRA

Calling all ladies! Come and be 'uplifted' at 8.00pm on Thursday 8th January 2004, when Alison Atkinson will be speaking on 'The History of the Bra'. In place of a fee, Alison has asked for a donation to be sent to Breast Cancer Care. This is a most worthy cause, and one which affects many women, so please give your support (no pun intended!)

For information about Ringmore WI, please contact Jackie Tagent (President: 810520), Gill Tomlin (Vice-President: 810028), Sally Errett (Secretary: 810547 or Jane Stevenson (Treasurer: 810151)
