HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYONE

It still seems that only yesterday we were arguing whether the millennium began in 2000 or 2001 and here we are in 2006. Time flies when you are having fun!

Before we cast off the old year completely, some 'Thank You's' must be made. First, 'Thank You' to Dane and Hilary for supplying our Christmas Tree. Their generosity brings Christmas cheer right into the village. Second, thanks, too, to Stan and Phill for decorating the tree. The colourful lights seem to signal 'welcome home', as one arrives in Ringmore on a dark, pre-Christmas night.

Ayrmer Cove is still looking ship-shape after the enthusiastic clean-up in December. No doubt the Winter storms will give the excuse for another sunny morning on the beach, just before Easter.

Mike Wynne-Powell has provided a splendid pictorial review of the year. Some of you will be pleased, others less so but all the pictures are good.

Book lovers should note that there has been a significant change to the time of day when the Mobile Library visits the village.

This month, the film My Summer of Love, will be shown at the Memorial Hall, St Ann's Chapel. This will be in aid of the charity Shelter Box, which has worked so hard to bring some relief in the Pakistan earthquake. Tickets are available from Holywell Stores and James Stevenson. They are only £4.00.

That apart, January promises to be a quiet month but no doubt, something unexpected will surprise most of us. There are, of course, the usual activities to attract us, each according to preference. Bowls, Table Tennis, Quizzes and Music at the Journey's End. The WI has a talk about Local Radio

As so often, a year ends on a sad note and 2005 was no exception. John Wright of Wheelwright Barn, Marwell died at home, before Christmas, after a long illness borne with great fortitude. At the end of the year, Reg Trant, a staunch supporter of All Hallows and a resident of Ringmore for more than twenty years, died in a Nursing Home in Ivybridge. John's funeral has already taken place and Reg's is on Monday 9th January, at 2.30pm at All Hallows. After the service there will be a private cremation. For both John and Reg the suffering is over and it is to Chrissie and Micky that we should now turn our thoughts.

To Unsung Heroes

Our Church always looks well cared for, the flowers especially are magnificent; thanks to all who use their talents so well. The cleaning and taking care of fabric ranges from the picking up of litter and weeds, right through all that work done on the yard mostly by two stalwarts.

Every Sunday the candles are lit, the building warmed, the books are ready and welcoming smiles greet us. We extend to Phill & Yvonne a huge thank you for their organisation and work, and also to their team of loyal sidesmen and bellringers.

So it is to the often unsung heroes of Ringmore that I raise a glass of cheer and hearty thanks as 2006 begins. May God bless you all.

For Whom The Bell Tolls?

Last January we started the New Year looking at the responsibilities of the PCC, and also highlighting the financial costs that keep All Hallows open as a Church, and secure as a building. Few visitors guess the date of the clock, most being at least a century out in their estimates when I ask them as they look around. That superb millenium clock will strike, or will have struck depending when you read this article, to signal the end of 2005. A year once again when many of you have been generous with time, encouragement and even money. The folk of Ringmore have proved again that the Church is the people, but also that a well cared for building gives credit to the village as well as glory to God. Well done everyone.

We are grateful for all you have done, and that includes many who only occasionally come to Services but support in other ways. We now have another three hundred and sixty five days to fan the flames of our unfilled hopes and dreams. Like Christmas presents we must unwrap the year to find out what we have in store. The year will be an entry in the calendar, one we might dread. Who knows what it will be? Those who look at the 'glass half empty' might be dreading anything from illness, bereavement, redundancy or retirement. On the other hand those who see the 'glass half full' might be looking forward to romance, adventure and new beginnings.

God is an expert at putting reality into both the pessimist and the optimist. He finds people at the end of their tether and somehow injects peace and wholeness, even when things are grim in worldly terms. He is the reviver of good memories in the hurt of bereavement, and the giver of courage and healing of lives even when medical cures are not readily available. God can also make the optimist more sensitive to the needs of those around, turning a happy go lucky spendthrift into a cheerful charitable giver sacrificing for the good of others.

An early blessing in the Bible is Numbers 6:24 "The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace." That is the prayer of blessing from Pam and me to all of you. We ask that the glory of God lights up your life, and takes it to a level far above mere biological existence. Also that the 'shalom' (Hebrew for Peace) of God gives you completeness and security in Him whatever the storms and tempests coming up over the horizon.

(John Elliott, Church House 810565)

Journey's End Journal

During December we were pleased to host Christmas Parties for the WI and the Short Mat Bowls. The festive season continued and our parties on Christmas Eve, Christmas Day Lunch and New Year's Eve were a great success with everybody having fun.

Now we look forward to January and a new year. Of note this month will be the appearance of Father Mike's Hot 4 who will be here on Saturday 28th - not to be missed.

RINGMORE PARISH COUNCIL

Meeting: Tuesday, 20th December 2005 at 7.00pm.

Present: Five councillors, the Clerk; Dist. Cllr. Carson; Mr David Young, NH Watch

Apologies: Cllrs. Mann and Patterson

Matters Arising

Challaborough Beach clean was done by Parkdean.

Trees at Little Barn - SHDC Landscape & Leisure will do an audit.

District Council

Cllr Carson reported on the difficulties which South Hams in meeting its responsibilities when the government does not fund much of the demand placed on the district councils.

Land Registry

The Chairman has spoken to My Coyte of Modbury who is willing to consider transferring the relevant parcels of land, provided that it can be established that he has the authority.

(Mr Coyte is a descendant of the family which sold the village in 1908 and it is believed that the land in question was inadvertently omitted from the sale).

Finance

The Council decided not to increase the precept which will remain at £3200 for 2005/06.

Any Other Business

The Chairman spoke to DCC Highways Dept at Ivybridge and agreed a strategy to prevent future flood water rushing through the village. Nothing can happen until budgets are replenished in the Spring.

Ringmore is due to have Wheelie Bins in February/March. SHDC is planning to have a Roadshow but if that proves to be inadequate, arrangements will be made to have talk from SHDC Waste Management Team.

The next meeting will be on 24th January in the WI Hall at 7.00pm

Our Thursday Quiz resumes after a brief break between Christmas and New Year. We are always pleased to welcome new quizzers and particularly, new Quiz Masters and Mistresses. Don't be shy - give it a try!

We have moved to our Winter opening times. We shall be closed on a Monday and will open in the evenings at 7.00pm on other days. If anyone would prefer an earlier start on a Friday evening, please talk to us and we will consider any sensible suggestion.

Finally, a note for all you Romantics - Valentine's Day will once again be February 14th. More next month.

A Happy New Year to Everyone

Elaine & Ken

STIFF UPPER LIP, WHAT!

Being British is about driving in a German car to an Irish pub for a Belgian beer and some French fries. On the way home we stop for a meal; an Indian curry or a Turkish kebab, maybe a Spanish omelette and we go Dutch. At home we watch American shows on a Japanese TV. Sounds a bit Irish! What is the most British thing of all? Suspicion of anything foreign.

THE LAST POST

David Bartip has left the Ringmore postal round that he has served over so many years. Several people have suggested an evening or lunchtime drink with David, a very informal occasion, at which a presentation would be made to him from the village. If you wish to make a small contribution, Dennis Collinson (Belle Vue) will collect any cash offering that you may care to make. The time/date of the February get-together will be announced in the February Newsletter.

WOMEN IN THE COMMUNITY

Although this was not a meeting, strictly speaking, our Christmas Party, at the Journey's End, was very successful indeed. It really was enjoyed by all, not least because just about all members made a real effort this year to attend (the deafening roar in the bar made this obvious) and the truly beautiful decorations in the Dining Room were the 'icing on the cake'. Thanks are due to Ken and his staff.

Our next meeting will be on 12th January when our Speaker will be Pat Holness who will tell us Tales from Local Radio.

Let us continue to support our thriving WI and all its activities, in the coming New Year. Good wishes to all.

WISHES EVERYONE A HAPPY NEW YEAR

DYB DYB DYB

A very big 'thank you' to everybody who helped us to have such an enjoyable sleepover in the Parish Room just before Christmas. We were made to feel so welcome by the whole village and we are sorry if we missed anyone with our Carol Singing but we were starting to lose our voices. Special thanks to the Tagents who took us in for mince pies and a sing-song round the organ. Many thanks also to Geoff and Yvonne for arranging the use of the hall. Thanks also, to the Vicar for making the service Cub-friendly. We had such a lovely time, we may make it an annual event!!!!

ODE TO THE PARISH ROOM FRIDGE

There was something horrible in the freezer
When I arrived Friday night,
It was mouldy, stinky, green and horrible
And it gave me a terrible fright!

So I removed the oozing object
And bleached and scrubbed and cleaned,
And I didn't stop the cleaning
Until the freezer gleamed.

Someone had left their scones behind
And switched the freezer off,
What resulted in the box
No-one would want to scoff.

So anyone else who uses this freezer
Please do be kind,
Remember when you switch it off
DONTLEAVE ANYTHING BEHIND!!!

TEN YEARS AGO . . .

The Precept to be raised by the Parish Council was held at £1200 . . . the Matchman was the 1995 winner (the first winner) of the Enigma competition . . . Ardene Bennett entertained the WI with slides and tales of China . . . Derek and Delphine Matten had just moved into Church House . . . James and Gillian entertained the WI at their Christmas Party.

There were mixed comments about the Newsletter . . . as it was in the beginning, is now and forever shall be.

For the record, the current Editor joined the Newsletter production team which included Yvonne Sheppard and Andrea Stanesby. Perhaps it is time for a change? Are there any closet editors out there, who would like to have a go?

Enigma

Last Month

The year ended with only a few stalwart entrants and one newcomer. There were variations in all the answers but all were close enough to commonsense not to be marked down. It was also the season of goodwill to all quizzers. Matchman, Taurus, Opals and Frequent Visitor were all given three points. It is to be hoped that Frequent Visitor turns up every month!

Our winner was already decided and for the record, let it be known that the Matchman triumphed, not for the first time - the fifth time, in fact. Other winners since the inception of Enigma include The Furry Boys (2), Taurus (2 ties), Opals (tied), Su Da Nim (tied). The Beginners and the Lovely Sue Brickay complete the Roll of Honour.

This Month

To start the year, a word puzzle. The answers to each pair of clues differ by only one letter.

Example: Earnest Request - Appeal
Dismay - Appal

- 1 Aviator - Cabal
- 2 Granulate - Energy
- 3 Nimble - Mole
- 4 Trace - Append
- 5 Instigated - Leguminous Plant
- 6 Oman - Powerful
- 7 Flat Board - Endeavour
- 8 Ethical - Verbal
- 9 Concord - Stride
- 10 To brag or swagger - Inventory
- 11 Hit - Boor
- 12 Gather - Deep valley

Remember, three points for a correct answer, two for a good try and one just for trying.

January Meeting

Our next meeting will be on Thursday 12th January in the W.I. Hall, with W.I. business at 7.30 p.m. This will be followed at 8 p.m. by our speaker, and this month we are delighted to welcome local celebrity Pat Holness of South Hams Radio. She will be recounting some of the tales from local radio, and is always well worth listening to. Whether or not you are a W.I. member - come along and enjoy an excellent speaker.

The meeting on 9th February will be a First Aid Refresher Course; details next month.

RINGMORE TABLE TENNIS CLUB

The Club wishes the village a Healthy, Happy and Prosperous 2006.

Club Nights are held every Tuesday evening at 7.30pm in the Parish Room and resume on 3rd January.

If you are not already a member and wish to try something different or would like to lose a few of those extra pounds put on over the Festive period you would be most welcome to come along to our Club Nights for an evening of gentle exercise and fun!
