Hello

As I write this letter I am preparing to move to Devon to be the Team Vicar with you, but tonight I am off on a trip on the canal with one of my present churches. We are going to be cruising on the Kennet and Avon canal through the Vale of Pewsey which is very scenic and fertile, and has white horses cut into some of the chalk hills. It was there that I was a Team Vicar until two summers ago when I took time out from ministry to go on pilgrimage and retreat for a few months.

It also meant Terry and I could attend to the arrangements for both our children, Steven and Louise, to get married, and last year we became proud grandparents to Jasmine and Sophie.

This last year I have been a Minister in the Salisbury Circuit based on the edge of the New Forest with pastoral care of six churches. It has been a wonderful experience and I have learnt a great deal about Methodism.

We have enjoyed summer holidays in Devon with our children & taken the youth group to Pathfinder camp at Mothecombe; but often now it is just the two of us walking the coastal path and having a quiet time. So we are hoping not to get too lost, and look forward to joining you soon and finding out what God's vision is for us all in the Modbury Team.

Yours in Christ

Lesley

Our new Team Vicar Revd. Lesley Valiant will be licensed by the Bishop of Exeter, Michael Langrish, at a service in St. George's Church Modbury at 4pm on 4th September.

RINGMORE to ST ANN'S CHAPEL – the best way

Morning sun shone brightly on fifty-nine locals and enough pets to start a dog show gathered at the Ringmore Gate to mark the opening of the new footpath linking Ringmore and St Ann's Chapel on Sunday 3rd July. Mike Hammond, representing the team that conceived and created the link, called us to order and gave a short talk to thank all involved in the project, emphasising salient points by brandishing a pair of scissors. Were we listening? At least the dogs were, one of which was heard to say "here, here" in a loud voice, which set a jolly tone that lasted throughout the 2.02 mile there-and-back walk. Scissors? Is there a better way to cut a ribbon? We set off at a necessarily slow pace with the oldest and slowest in the lead. Poppies amongst ripening wheat, larks overhead, beautiful views uncluttered by trees and the occasional boundary stone – this has to be the choice route to Dane and Hilary's shop. Just past half way we skirted Jette's Copse and reflected for a moment on an absent friend before crossing the road and catching sight of St Ann's Chapel. Perspiring gently we gathered in the car park behind Hollywell Stores where we were greeted by Kyrie Vanstone and her trestle table laden with drinks and nibbles. Father Christmas seemed out of place on such a beautiful day until we realised it was Bryan Carson (with yet another pair of scissors) who set us off on the return journey to Ringmore. A great time was had by all, including the dogs.

BUTTERFLY

A butterfly in the mist
The morning air cold, yet sunkissed
It can reach the cloud's seam
A butterfly's not afraid to dream

I admire their intense colour
A beautiful bunt flutter
I look upon God's décor
It's elegance leaving me in awe.

COWS

Does anyone find it amazing that during the mad cow epidemic our Government could track a single cow, born in Appleby almost three years before, right to the stall where she slept in the county of Cumbria, even tracking her calves to their stalls? But our Government are unable to locate 125,000 illegal immigrants wandering around our country? Maybe we should give each of them a cow.

ASLEEP IN THE ARMS OF SOMEONE WHO CARES

He is a Chief Master Sergeant in the USAF serving in Afghanistan—as high as you can go in enlisted ranks

John Gebhardt's wife, Mindy, said that this little girl's entire family was executed. The insurgents intended to execute the little girl also and shot her in the head but they failed to kill her. She was cared for in John's hospital and is healing up but continues to cry and moan. The nurses said that John is the only one who seems to calm her down so John has spent several nights holding her while they both sleep in that chair. The girl is coming along with her healing.

He is a real Star of the War and represents what the combined service is trying to do.

The World needs to see pictures like this and needs to realise that what we're doing over there is making a difference.

National Trust

With the summer holidays on the horizon South Devon is set to become a hive of tourist activity. With this in mind, the ranger team have been busy preparing the footpaths, renewing signage and managing some 8,000 acres of land. Educational school groups are finishing for the season, and our exciting events programme has been running as usual.

The new permissive footpath across Scobbiscombe farm has been open for over a month now, and makes for a fantastic walk. On the approach towards Hoist Point the view of Burgh Island and Bigbury Bay cannot be beaten. It shortens the circular route between Worwell and Westcombe beach, but still offers ample opportunity to immerse yourself in the serene beauty of the coast. Look out for a large variety of butterflies, the nationally rare Cirl Bunting, Peregrines and Cormorants nesting on the cliff, Stone chats and Kestrels are all commonly spotted on this route so keep your eyes peeled!

The beach at Ayrmer Cove is always a popular spot in the summer. We really appreciate the continued support from the locals who help us to keep the beach clean. A clean beach can be better enjoyed by all, so thank you! A group teaching survival techniques have recently been using the areas behind the beach. This group have returned to Ringmore this year, it is their only spot in South Devon. If you have any thoughts on the use of this site for the event, please get in touch with the ranger team.

Ragwort is commonly found across the countryside, it is problematic as it can be poisonous to both humans and grazing animals. It requires removal to prevent the blanket spread of this yellow flowering plant. This year we have already set to work removing the species from our land at Clematon Hill, and are now looking at its removal from the rest of the estate. There are so many different aspects to countryside management, if you would like to read more about what the South Devon rangers have been up to then check out our blog at: www.ntsouthdevoncountryside.co.uk or follow us on Facebook!

Enjoy the stunning scenery and wildlife around the South Devon coast, we might see you out there!

Five little old ladies in a car....

Waiting in Doncaster, to catch speeding drivers, a Police Officer sees a car pattering along at 22 MPH.

Says he to himself: "This driver is just as dangerous as a speeder!" So he turns on his lights and pulls the driver over.*

Approaching the car, he notices that there are five old ladies, two in the front seats and three in the back...wide eyed and white as ghosts.

The driver, obviously confused, says to him "Officer, I don't understand, I was doing exactly the speed limit! What seems to be the problem?"

"Ma'am," the officer replies, "you weren't speeding, but you should know that driving slower than the speed limit can also be a danger to other drivers."

Slower than the speed limit? No sir, I was doing the speed limit exactly...Twenty-two miles an hour!"the old woman says a bit proudly.

The Police officer, trying to contain a chuckle explains to her that A22 is the road number, not the speed limit.

A bit embarrassed, the woman grins and thanks the officer for pointing out her error.

"But before I let you go, Ma'am, I have to ask...Is everyone in this car OK? These women seem awfully shaken, and they haven't made a sound this whole time," the officer asks.

"Oh, they'll be all right in a minute officer. We've just come off the A120."

BRAIN TRANSPLANT

In the hospital the relatives gathered in the waiting room, where a family member lay gravely ill. Finally, the doctor came in looking tired and sombre. 'I'm afraid I'm the bearer of bad news,' he said as he surveyed the worried faces. 'The only hope left for your loved one at this time is a brain transplant.

It's an experimental procedure, very risky, but it is the only hope. Insurance will cover the procedure, but you will have to pay for the brain.'

The family members sat silent as they absorbed the news. After a time, someone asked, 'How much will a brain cost?'

The doctor quickly responded, '£5,000 for a male brain; £200 for a female brain.'

The moment turned awkward.

Some of the men actually had to 'try' to not smile, avoiding eye contact with the women.

A man unable to control his curiosity, finally blurted out the question everyone wanted to ask, 'Why is the male brain so much more than a female brain?'

The doctor smiled at the childish innocence and explained to the entire group, 'It's just standard pricing procedure. We have to price the female brains a lot lower because they've been used.'

Asparagus Pancakes

Make as many small pancakes as you need. (2 per person for starter, 3 for main course) (Can be frozen)

Steam asparagus (2 or 3 spears per pancake) (Can be done in advance)

Put a slice of Proscuitto, Parma ham, thin smoked german ham or similar on each pancake

Place on the asparagus spears and roll up.

Place rolls close together in dish

Pour over a little double cream. Sprinkle with grated cheese.

Put in medium oven for about 20 mins or until pancakes crisp at edges

I saw Simon Hopkinson on television the other day and he made this dish using Hollandaise Sauce instead of cream. Sounds good.

Note spelling errors and poor English.

The current telephone scam, is a call from Microsoft, saying that your computer has been reporting a lot of faults and they can fix these. They direct you to a folder (which is on all, except, Apple computers!) containing the error log, to demonstrate the "problem" to be fixed. They offer to fix the problem with software at a cost of £xx's if you pay by credit card. You agree.

They now have the value you have paid and access to your credit card. They then install the software, which may or may not be real. They will offer to ring you back the next day, and do. Obviously if you are still happy, then they know you have not realised that you have been scammed and can continue to use your credit card (and possibly your computer).
Be warned.

If a window pops up when you visit a website saying your computer has a problem, saying something similar to "Click to have it scanned" - DON'T. Do not even try to close the pop up box. The whole pop up box can be set as the button to install the malware, so clicking anywhere in the box can have the same effect. If in doubt close the main website window, or close your web browser. Alternatively open Task Manager (right click on the blue tool bar at the bottom of your screen and select "Task Manager", highlight your web browser and use the "end task" button.

If all else fails, use the main on/off switch to turn the computer off!

RINGMORE PARISH COUNCIL PARISH PLAN

Progressing the Parish Plan

Your Parish Council is aware that the last update of the Plan took place in 2008, after consultation and feedback from Parishioners in 2007, and believes that it would now be appropriate to invite new ideas/proposals for inclusion in future Council and Parish activities.

To that end, Parishioners are invited to contribute their views and suggestions for consideration on the pro-forma below, and kindly return the form to any Council member.

Topics might include issues or opportunities relevant to amenity, environment, security, information for Parishioners or visitors, etc., and a proposal already under consideration is to re-site the bus shelter to a safer position, improve the flow of traffic past the church and create a more attractive entrance to the village.

It would be helpful if Parishioners could return any suggestions by September 12th 2011, to allow for initial review at the Parish Council Meeting later that month.

Thank you.

Proposals/ideas for inclusion.....

Please return your ideas to any of the following:

Michael Hammond, Jem Deverson, Sarah Hitchmough, Brian Lambell, James Parkin, John Reynolds.
