If I said plan B was Miranda's "Local Apple Cake" what would Plan A be?.....

Well I have my first recipe to insert in to the Newsletter. It is from Miranda Gardiner's Book "Teaching Dad to Cook Flapjack", with kind permission from Miranda herself at the School Gates, thank you Miranda, who describes herself as cook, author and "part time skiver from life" on Twitter, I would say in reference to her family year long round the world trip, all of whom, have now returned to Devon.

Having formerly lived in Bigbury on Sea we can claim her as our own local gal for the purposes of this recipe! (Sorry that wandered away from the ingredients, incidentally, Bigbury on Sea was where all her lovely photos for the book were shot and might I add, Teaching Dad to Cook Flapjack is for sale at Holywell Stores at what I was told was a good price!) We have Aveton Gifford C of E Primary school in common and of course I couldn't resist the opportunity to try out the recipe, especially with apples from our garden, I used Bramley's which gave a real zing (actually our eaters weren't quite ripe) so good enough reason to deviate. Here is the proof in photographic evidence and to my delight someone paid good money at the school Sports and BBQ afternoon to eat it and actually enjoyed it.(testament to the robustness of the recipe, if that is a good thing. Thank you Miranda ! (and gratitude for giving me something to write about which is better than my plan A, which believe it or not involved some of the possible anagrams you can make out of Ringmore, don't get me started, Germ Iron, Nor Grime, Morri-gen, (Sounds like it has celtic origins) Roger min and my favourite Grin More.

Here we go:- 2 eggs, 175g caster sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 75ml milk, 150g butter, soft, 125g plain flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 2 local apples. Makes about 8 slices . Pre heat the oven 180° C/gas mark 4. Line a 20cm x 20cm cake tin with baking parchment. Beat the eggs , sugar and vanilla extract together for 5 mins. Warm milk in a small pan and add butter to melt . Pour the milky buttery liquid into the egg and sugar mix, beating all the time. Sift the flour and baking powder together and add to the cake mixture, mixing well to ensure it is lump free. Pour the batter in to the cake tin, then peel and slice apples and arrange on top of the batter mix. Bake for 25-30 mins until golden colour and firm, but gives way slightly when pressed in the middle.

Church Services and thought for the month

What Makes Church, Church?

The church is the body of Christ. The early church was made up of a network of household fellowships in a town. The word for church in the Greek, ecclesia, means the community of those who are called out (ie. called out by God). In New Testament times there were no large church buildings; there was no hierarchy, no Christian colleges, Sunday schools or choirs. There were only small groups of believers. All they had was the fellowship of each other. We also see from scripture that the Church is not dependent on buildings; that every member is involved in ministry; that house and prayer groups are as important as Sunday worship; that the Church as the Body of Christ has access to extraordinary spiritual power; and that the Church is part of the community.

The church is there to be a healing, growing community which invests in people. I believe there are 4 basics of being church:

1. A living relationship with God as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with a thirst and a love for his word.
2. A distinctive quality that others can see; the proof of our relationship with God and the fruit of his Spirit, is visible in our lives. Any conflicts within the church community should be seen to be resolved.
3. Act our faith: We are called to demonstrate the significance of what God has done through us. We are called to demonstrate God's love and to shine as lights in his world so that the world will believe.
4. The use of spiritual gifts: We need to be aware of and use the spiritual gifts that we have been given. We need to know the purpose of our gifts, and how we can use them in the church and in the world. It is God's desire that we all live and move only under the anointing of his Holy Spirit.

And the main reason for church growth in the New Testament? Love.
Love, shown by the disciples to each other & those around them.
If only we could follow suit.....

Terry.

	County Cllr William Mumford	WM
	District Cllr Bryan Carson	BC

Members of the public present: None

18/12 DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

None

19/12 MINUTES OF THE PREVIOUS MEETING

The Chairman signed the minutes of the meeting held on 19 June 2012 as a correct record.

20/12 CODE OF CONDUCT

The Chairman had now collected all of the outstanding register of interests forms and lodged the forms with the Monitoring Officer at South Hams District Council.

21/12 FOOTPATHS

21.1 Footpath to Bigbury and Purchase of Trimmer Mower

Following minute 15.1 MH explained about grant funds in the gift of WM; the Locality Budget and Invest Devon. Invest Devon could fund local capital projects of about £5,000. Submissions were required in the current calendar year.

It was proposed that a DR Pro XL 875 trimmer mower be purchased at a net cost of £669 for the purpose of cutting the grass on footpaths in the parish and that application be made to the Invest Devon fund for a grant to cover the cost.

JD was authorized to place the order with Devon Garden Machinery.

The machine would initially be kept at JD's premises and he would use it to cut footpaths and establish the time taken. At a future meeting a proposal would be put to the Council to employ a local person to use the machine. That person would be paid an hourly rate in accordance with the timings established by JD

21.2 Footpath Complaints

It was noted that two parishioners had complained about ploughing too close to the footpath south of Houghton. This matter had now been resolved.

21.3 Footpath Publicity

The meeting noted an e-mail from the Devon County Council Public Rights of Way officer about giving publicity to the new footpath between Ringmore and Bigbury. The officer had suggested a map of the route at each end of the path. It was agreed to respond positively to this suggestion. In addition an article would be offered to the Bigbury news.

22/12 FLOODING

It was noted that during the recent heavy rain there had been significant flooding in the village due to run-off from newly ploughed fields. The DCC Highways officer had visited the village to assess the situation and had agreed to repair the run-off channel at the top of Rectory Lane and to adjust the camber of the road. At some time in the future DCC would work on connecting the gully to a new drain in the road from St Ann's Chapel.

It was noted that the landowner had some responsibility in this matter and JD offered to discuss the situation with him.

23/12 NOTICE BOARD AT CHALLABOROUGH

MH reported that the Council notice board at Challaborough was damaged beyond repair. It was proposed that a new notice board be purchased of a size to hold 8 sheets of A4 paper at an approximate cost of £379.

Before placing the order the agreement of the owner of the shop at Challaborough would be sought, since the board was mounted on the wall of the shop.

24/12 BENCHES

24.1 Borne Bench

It was agreed to accept a bench as a gift to the Council. The bench to be placed by the bus shelter. However the Council could give no undertaking that the bench would not be moved for 15 years, but it would notify the donor if the bench needed to be moved and in such event offer the bench back to the donor.

24.2 Coronation Seat

It was proposed the expenditure of up to £100 be approved in order for the Coronation seat to be refurbished.

NOTHING TO REPORT

We were shocked and sorry to hear of the news of the sudden and unexpected death on Friday 21st September 2012 of Debbie Mercy's father, Ian. We offer our sincere condolences and warmest wishes for the days to come to Sylvia, Debbie and Family. Our thoughts are with you all at this sad time.

Operation Christmas Child

Empty shoe boxes are in short supply at this time of year! But thanks to Rosemary Wilson's sterling work, we have a supply of boxes ready to be filled.

Since 1990 Operation Christmas Child has been sending gift-filled shoe boxes to children living in difficult circumstances. Last Christmas 1.1 million children from 12 countries across the world received the gift of a special shoe box. The 66 boxes we sent from Ringmore were delivered to children in Belarus, an area where sadly children are still greatly affected by the Chernobyl disaster.

I am hoping that you will once more generously support this appeal.

This year it is hoped that individuals will fill a box or get together with one or two others to do so. The covered boxes, soft toys, puppets, gloves hats and a few other items will be available inside the Church. You are welcome to take a box and a few items with which to start filling it. Please also take one of the leaflets, which gives suggestions of items to include and also has the age group sticker for the outside of the box.

When your box is complete (by the 12th NOVEMBER please) it can be left with Judy Bull or myself. Please ring me on 810407, if you would like it collected.

Your gift will mean so much. As one headmistress in Kosova said, on warmly greeting the shoe box distribution team, "The shoe boxes bring kindness and some warm light into the lives of our children. Some of them have huge emotional needs, and who can meet these? They need love so much. This is real friendship, and we appreciate it!"

AUCTION

PLEDGES & USEFUL ITEMS

Starts 7.30pm

If you have any items suitable for the auction please contact Brian Lambell who will arrange for storage/collection in readiness for the auction.

Things to do before 11¼!

Well not quite, but one wish resulting from living in Ringmore and walking along the cliff path, has been to see Eddystone Lighthouse up close. I have photographed the Lighthouse and the remains of Smeaton's Tower at the end of (what I call) Toby's path many times, and of course seen the re-built Smeaton's Tower on the Hoe, and always wanted to see and photograph it, not as a distant and indistinct object on the horizon, but up close.

Thanks to the British Legion Auction in the Journey's End last year and the Hitchmough's pledge of a trip and picnic, this wish has now come true.

On Saturday 1st September, on a day predicted to be cloudy with bright intervals and a calm sea, Alison and I went off with Andrew and Sarah to Plymouth, to set off in their 8.6m Cobra rib (rigid inflatable with in board diesel engine). In reality we ended up with blue sky and sunshine. After loading up the boat we went out past the Hoe and the Breakwater to explore the coast to Burgh Island. We rendezvoused with Peter and Debbie Mercy in their rib, which acted as our safety boat. They had launched their boat from the beach at Challaborough and together we sped out to Eddystone, keeping an eye on each other. The sea had a bit of a short "chop", but nothing detracted from the enjoyment of the experience.

Initially the lighthouse was not visible, but then it appeared in the slight haze on the horizon and in no time was visible, standing out on the very treacherous rocks. Due to the large Spring tide and our arrival very close to low tide, the rocks were well exposed and clearly showing the hazard there were and still could be for shipping. The surreal part was that once there one felt very safe as we were near to land (the rocks), the coast line being a distant view stretching from way down in Cornwall to Bolt Tail.

After circling the rocks, we anchored in the flat calm water between two sets of jagged rocks to enjoy a sumptuous leisurely Champagne picnic in the sun. Peter and Debbie went for a snorkel and reminded us of a James Bond film in their black wetsuits when they were on the rocks. We just chilled out and enjoyed the amazing scene around us, smiling as the seagulls standing in rows on the jagged rocks gradually lost their perches as the tide came in.

The sheer feat of building skill that created the Lighthouse with the stone blocks fitting together so perfectly was inspiring, particularly when this was built so long ago in 1882 without the modern aids available now. The base of Smeaton's Tower which was started in 1757, was also an incredible piece of work, which is now left perched on a precarious undercut rock. Also amazing to think the latter was carefully taken apart in such a potentially inhospitable location and reassembled on the Hoe.

A spot of fishing by Peter did not need any patience as the fish just decided to be caught within seconds of the line going in. (The catch ultimately provided Peter and Debbie's family a fresh Fish and Chip supper on Sunday!)

Reluctantly we had to make our way back and sped back together to Challaborough to see Debbie and Peter safely home and then on to Plymouth. On the way enjoying seeing Ayrmer Cove, Westcombe and the Mouth of the Erne from the different view point of the sea.

Both Alison and I would like to thank Andrew and Sarah for all the work that went in to giving us a day to remember, Peter and Debbie for providing safety cover and helping with the arrangements and to all four of them for providing such good company for the day. Their generosity helped to raise funds for the very worthy cause of the British Legion and we would recommend that this pledge and the similar one from the Mercy's are pledges that should not be missed at the next British Legion auction.

All Hallows Church, Ringmore

Harvest Festival

Our Harvest Festival this year will be held on Sunday 28th October. The Harvest Festival Service will be held in All Hallows at 9.30am and will be conducted by our Team Rector Neil Barker. The Harvest Festival Lunch will once again be held in the Ringmore Parish Room at 12.30 for 1.00pm. Tickets will be on sale shortly and are obtainable from Drina(810405), Judy(810420) & the Journey's End(810205). Please also see A4 advert in this News Letter.

Harvest Festival Flowers and Harvest donation to Korniloff, Bigbury on Sea.

We welcome all flower arrangers of all ages to come and decorate the Church for Harvest Festival on Saturday 27th 10—2pm, come along and join in, coffee and Tea provided. Also we are collecting Harvest Produce, vegetables, fruit and tinned and dried groceries etc to be donated to Korniloff Bigbury on Sea after the Harvest Service. All gifts gladly received, please leave in the church in the days running up to Harvest festival. (Many many thanks , Rosemary Wilson.)

Village Service

Drina conducted a very enlightening September Village service, ably assisted by Rosemary Wilson, taking on a historical route from Moses to the present day. We have a village service on the third Sunday of each month so do come along and if you have any favourite hymns that you would like to be sung then please let us know.

Annual Fete

Despite the very poor weather, reducing attendance by half, a profit of £1,705 was made this year against £2,900 last year. This tremendous result is down to so many of you assisting in the preparation, on the day and afterwards in all the dismantling and clearing up. Thank you all very much.

Quinquennial Inspection

The Quinquennial Inspection of All Hallows was carried out at the beginning of February and the report has now been received. We are currently in the process of going through it carefully to see what repairs/upkeep is required and obtaining quotes for remedial work to ensure that All Hallows is a building that the village of Ringmore can be proud of. It always amazes me how often visitors say what a lovely church and village Ringmore is - sometimes we just take things for granted!!

Prayer Chain

From time to time, most of us feel the need for prayer (whether or not we go to church). For this reason we have decided to start a prayer chain, and this is how it works -

If anyone has a prayer request, they can phone one of the numbers below and give details of the request (as much or as little detail as they wish). That person will then phone the next person on the list and so on - ensuring at least ten people are praying. Details will be kept confidential at all times.

Rosemary Wilson 810211, Jenny Williams 810851, Mary Wilson 830280, Gill Tomlin 810028, Sally Errett 810547, Alice Thornton 810284, Judy Bull 810420, Alison Wynne-Powell 810407, Sally Ness 810639, Drina Williams 810405.

Carol Singing

The Carols by Candlelight Service will be held in All Hallows on Sunday 16th December at 6.00 pm

Leading up to this, there will be carol singing each week at Barford on Wednesday evenings, starting on 17th October at 7.30 pm.

If you would like to join us, please do come along, either to be part of the choir in the church on the night or just to enjoy a bit of singing, or even just to accompany a partner who sings (and perhaps help with the coffee). To find out more, please contact Adrian or Judy on 810420

Beachwatch Clean Up

Those of you who missed out on the opportunity to participate in ACA's Beachwatch clean up on Cockleridge on Sunday 16th September will not be surprised to find out that the supply of waterborne rubbish is inexhaustible! However, I'm happy to report that Cockleridge (and the Avon) does seem cleaner each time we visit. At least, there is not so much large rubbish immediately visible. Unfortunately, the small stuff is just as hazardous to our wildlife and there is plenty of that to be found. My thanks go out to the band of volunteers who cheerfully made the effort to comb the beach and help conserve our environment.

The usual classes of flotsam and jetsam were present. In declining order of frequency, the top 10 classes were: Plastic pieces (> 25cm) - 137, fishing nets & pieces (>50cm) - 133, polystyrene packaging - 75, foam/sponge insulation - 53, food wrappers - 34, caps & lids < 29, string & cord (<1cm) - 18, plastic drink bottles - 16, cotton bud sticks - 15, plastic food containers - 13.

The sources of these items are quite varied and include: general litter, fishing/marine activities and sewage. The Marine Conservation Society will collate the results from around the country and continue to use these to lobby industry and government for cleaner seas and beaches.

in Ringmore W.I. Hall on Sunday 28th October from 3.15 to 5.30 pm

Seth Ward and the Nnukes (Newton and Noss Ukuleles) came to give us an evening of music and laughter.

The W.I. member numbers were swelled by 13 visitors to hear this popular instrument.

We were first given a brief history. Ukuleles were believed to have originated in the C19th having been designed and made by Portugese sailors. Besides being able to play 'George Formby classics' this instrument lends itself to pure classics such as 'Ode to Joy', which adapts to the instrument perfectly. Ukuleles are a favourite in schools, the fingering being so simple but the same as a guitar, with girls staying longer than the boys. This may be due to the boys voices 'breaking'. Even George Formby had to have his tuned to his voice. Having been shown the fingering, 8 'pressed men' were given the chance to play, which was received well. Then two young ladies, from Seth Ward's group, Laura and Keira, showed us how, with practice it could be mastered. All in all this was a very popular evening.

Next month on the October 11th @8p.m. Jinny McCabe returns for a flower workshop.

THE NATIONAL TRUST

With the schools back and a definite Autumn feeling in the air, the summer madness is definitely over for this year. Our work continues apace however: with the wet summer the growing season has been longer and more vigorous than usual, so we have had to do an extra cut on many of the footpaths.

Earlier this month the National Trust held a fantastic event at South Milton Sands in partnership with the South Devon AONB. Our Big Night Out on the Beach fortunately coincided with what now seems to have been the last day of summer, with glorious sunshine drawing people to the beach in droves. Our rangers lead a rock pool ramble along with AONB staff, while other staff helped children to make pirate hats and glittery lanterns.

The Devon Bird Group organised a walk around their South Milton Ley reserve, which provided a rare opportunity to see the reserve, as access is usually restricted to members of the bird group. Also on offer was a chance to try stand up paddle boarding and kayaking with resident instructor Surfin' Sam, and the Beach House Café had a barbecue with burgers, lobster and other grilled delights. As the sun set and night fell, storyteller Clive Pig kept children and adults spellbound with a series of tales around the fire. The event was a great success and we look forward to working in partnership with the AONB again in the future.

We have also held another successful event with Kingsbridge Children's Centre. Taking place over two days at Overbeck's and Soar Mill Cove, on the first day the children tried their hand at den building and kite making, and at Soar Mill Cove they created sand sculptures on the beach, and had the chance to fly their kites. At Overbeck's we also laid on a barbecue for the kids and parents, with sausages supplied by Lidstone's Butchers in Kingsbridge. They proved popular with children and rangers alike!

We are very excited to have launched a partnership branding effort with Singing Paddles in Kingsbridge. One of their kayaks now carries the National Trust logo with more to follow. We hope that this step will improve our visibility on the estuary and it cements a strong partnership with Singing Paddles.

Finally, we have completed the installation of a new interpretation panel and way marker at Ayrmer Cove car park, which is part of our ongoing work to improve the presentation of all of our car parks.

AWARDS

Congratulations !

Ringmore Parish Newsletter would like to offer congratulations to The Lazy Cow café Modbury who have become one of three finalists in the Devon Life Food And Drinks Award 2012 . Emily was shocked and thrilled (of course!) when she received the phone call announcing that the Lazy Cow Café had been selected after readers of Devon Life and customers had voted for the Lazy Cow through the Award Scheme now in its ninth year. As finalist in the category " Best Tea Room " Emily has been invited to attend the Gala awards ceremony to be held at

Sandy Park , Exeter on Thursday 1st November along with the other two finalists. The Coffee Rush Shaldon and Vintage Tea Totnes. Very Well done

Emily and Good Luck !

Blond MEN Jokes

A friend told the blond man: "Christmas is on a Friday this year."

The blond man then said, "Let's hope it's not the 13th."

Two blond men find three grenades, and they decide to take them to a police station. One asked: "What if one explodes before we get there?"

The other says: "We'll lie and say we only found two."

A blonde man is in the bathroom and his wife shouts: "Did you find the shampoo?" He answers, "Yes, but I'm not sure what to do... it's for dry hair, and I've just wet mine."

Charity number 1070237

Modbury Caring

There will be a

General Meeting

in Modbury Health Centre
on Wednesday 17th October at 6.30 pm

A Special Resolution will be put to members as follows:

"That Modbury Caring, charity no. 1070237, change its charitable objects from 'To relieve patients of Modbury Health Centre by providing transport, a prescription delivery service and relief for carers' to 'To promote any charitable purpose for the benefit of persons in need residing in the area covered by Modbury Health Centre, in particular the relief of the elderly and sick'.

For further details, please contact
Louise Killick (01548 830666)

If you are over 18, live in the area covered by Modbury Health Centre, and are concerned for the work of Modbury Caring, come along and vote!

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

RBL FILM SHOW

BIGBURY MEMORIAL HALL, Saturday 27 OCT
ALL PROCEEDS TO THE POPPY APPEAL 2012

Bring and share supper and drinks. Tickets £10 from Hollywell Stores or James and Jane Stevenson.

Doors open 6.45 – film starts 7.30

Life on a British bomber base and nearby village is disrupted by the arrival of Americans who have come to join in the bomber offensive. Pilot Officer Penrose (John Mills) and Lieutenant Frizelli (Bonar Colleano) both fall for Iris (Renée Asherson) who lives at the local hotel, but you have to see the film to know how that develops. Laughter guaranteed when those easy-going Yanks break convention with peanut butter, baseball games and (oh dear) flying clothes in the mess – but poignant moments too when the realities of war take toll on emotions. Screenplay of this 1945 classic by Terence Rattigan, former RAF officer.

Bigbury, Ringmore & Kingston Branch – 2310
Royal British Legion

On the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month in 1918, the First World War ended. Civilians wanted to remember the people who had given their lives for peace and freedom. An American War Secretary, Moina Michael, inspired by John McCrae's poem, "In Flanders' Fields", began selling poppies to friends to raise money for the ex-Service community. And so the tradition began.

In 1922 Major George Howson, a young infantry officer, formed the Disabled Society to help disabled ex-Service men and women from the First World War.

Howson suggested to the Legion that members of the Disabled Society could make poppies, and the Poppy Factory was subsequently founded in Richmond in 1922. The original poppy was designed so that workers with a disability could easily assemble it and this principle remains the same today.

Each year the nation expresses its unequivocal support for The Royal British Legion's work through the Poppy Appeal.

The Appeal is the Legion's biggest fundraising campaign and runs year-round. Lapel poppies are available to buy in shops, supermarkets, pubs and clubs from the last week of October until Remembrance Sunday, or 11th November, whichever is later in the calendar.

It takes 350,000 volunteers and staff to organise the Poppy Appeal each year. Money raised goes to support our welfare work for the Armed Forces community.

More than 40 million Remembrance poppies, 500,000 poppies of other types, 5 million Remembrance petals, 100,000 wreaths and sprays, 750,000 Remembrance Crosses and other Remembrance items are made at the Poppy Factory each year.

The 2010 Poppy Appeal raised a staggering £36 million, smashing all previous records. This target for the 2011 Appeal (October 2011 to September 2012) is £40 million.

Cat's Diary

Day 983 of My Captivity

My captors continue to taunt me with bizarre little dangling objects. They dine lavishly on fresh meat, while the other inmates and I are fed hash or some sort of dry nuggets.

Although I make my contempt for the rations perfectly clear, I nevertheless must eat something in order to keep up my strength.

The only thing that keeps me going is my dream of escape. In an attempt to disgust them, I once again vomit on the carpet. Today I decapitated a mouse and dropped its headless body at their feet. I had hoped this would strike fear into their hearts, since this clearly demonstrates my capabilities. However, they merely made condescending comments about what a "good little hunter" I am. Bastards!

There was some sort of assembly of their accomplices tonight. I was placed in solitary confinement for the duration of the event. However, I could hear the noises and smell the food. I overheard that my confinement was due to the power of "allergies". I must learn what this means and how to use it to my advantage.

Today I was almost successful in an attempt to assassinate one of my tormentors by weaving around his feet as he was walking. I must try this again tomorrow, but at the top of the stairs.

I am convinced that the other prisoners here are flunkies and snitches. The dog receives special privileges. He is regularly released and seems to be more than willing to return. He is obviously retarded. The bird must be an informant. I observe him communicating with the guards regularly. I am certain that he reports my every move. My captors have arranged protective custody for him in an elevated cell, so he is safe for now.
