

No following in an inventory of goods left a decorated tablet attached to one of the wills in the preceding list.

"A true inventory of the goods and chattels of John Hooper and his wife deceased, prayed by Richard Neate and Henry Slatt and John Holland, the 15th day of June in the year of our Lord God 1620.

Impria twelve assay-Cores, five assay of wheat, eight assay of barley, of five assay of peas and beans total in five shillings and ten pence one with the other, amounting in the whole to three and twenty pounds.

It. Three shillings and ten pence three pence and ten shillings rated to the value of five shillings and ten pence

It. A cow in deauin robes
 9s. Six bags in thirty shillings
 9s. Five pounds in twelve shillings
 9s. Twenty hundred rated in a mark
 9s. His coat twenty shillings
 9s. Seven crockes forty shillings
 9s. Seven pans and a Cauldron
 Seven robes.

Noble Richard 1300 - 6/5 x (1/2 mark) (total) 1465 - 10/- (total) also was on Angell.

Angell (Gold) 1465 - 6/5 x (1/2 mark) Angell = 1/2 Angell.

Discrimination. Charles II was Mark - Mary Queen. Mr. Justice valued at 100 silver pence. (10/8)

later numbered at 13/4.

Great (Silver) 1277. Not popular.

numbered 1351 cost 4d. numbered till 1662.

2 further copies in File of Hooper's Extracts.

It. Three dozen of puter dishes thirty <sup>42</sup> shillings

It. The Chandlesticks two shillings

It. A Pint and a Quart with a tinning cup and a salt eighteen pence

It. All the timber vessels in six and twenty shillings and eight pence.

It. Three planks five shillings

It. The Chests and Coofres in thirteen shillings

It. His debts upon spechalltries is eight and twenty shillings

It. Two feather beds and a down bed with there steeds thereunto belonginge fower pounds

It. Three payre of blankets and three colets and three feather bouldsters fifty shillings

It. His wearing apparell three pounds

It. Twenty pounds of wool twenty shillings.

It. Two harrowes ten shillings

It. The dunge twenty shillings

It. The fowren eighteen pence

It. A musket performed twenty shillings

It. A payre of sheets and a bord cloth ten shillings

It. Two payre of Roopes with two Saddles and a pammell with there furniture thereunto belonginge ten shillings.

H. His tools with all his utensils of <sup>153</sup> now belonging to the house thirteen shillings four pence

Last, and finally. All the Implements about the house not above named rated to the value of three shillings.

Summa totalis lxxiiij<sup>l</sup> and 23 shillings

Exhibitum fuit hujusmodi
Inventorium apud Totton xxi<sup>mo</sup> die Julii Anno Domini 1620 per Jacobum Hoopewell
Executorem &c pro plano &c
&c &c.

R. E. Hoopewell
12 March 1890