

CAVALCADE OF HISTORY : JUNE 29TH 1857 : RINGMORE

(George Grimshaw's somewhat colourful title)

1128 Acres ; Population (1851) 337 ; Number of voters (1857) 13
Rectory - King's Books £19 -10- 7¹/₂. (Incumbent's income, Tithe value ?)
Patronage and incumbency of Rev. G.Butland
Mr. J.E. Hooppell, Clerk
(Baptist : Small place of worship but no minister..no trace yet of meeting place)

Butland, Rev. Gilbert	Rector
Ham, John	Blacksmith
Cocker, James (Sen.)	Carpenter
Cocker, James (Jun)	Carpenter
Crimp, John	Farmer, Lower Farm
Farley, James	Thatcher
Forbes, Thomas	Coal Merchant
Gay, Robert	Victualler and Shopkeeper, New Inn
Hodder, John	Farmer, Marwell
Hooppell, John E.	Shoemaker, Challaborough Cott., Rising Sun Inn
Luscombe, William	Farmer, Renton
Martyn, William	Farmer, Middle Farm
Randle, Peter	Farmer, Higher Farm
Randle Robert	Farmer, Cottage Farm
Randle, Thomas	Shopkeeper
Sparrow, John and Benjamin	Farmers, Great and Little South Langstone
Triggs, James	Farmer, *
White, John	Farmer, Okenbury

* In 1860 + but not by 1874. Farmed along with George Kelly - Middle Farm

This is extracted from a notebook in George Grimshaw's hand. It may have been taken from one of the Directories, possibly by a Mrs.Buck [of Crossways?] since elsewhere in the notebook it suggest That the book should be returned to Mrs. Buck. The major amount of the entries concern Bigbury parish.

Dennis Collinson 09/02/2010