

As a child I lived with my family at 3 Crossways. My father Grenville Johns owned Quarry Garage. He unfortunately died in 1958 aged only 51 and is buried in Ringmore Church yard. We left Ringmore in 1963, although my husband and I rented Rose Cottage in 1965-71, and my two eldest boys were born then; but as my husband was in the R.N. we had to move on.

The purpose of this letter is that my mother died recently (aged 90) and she wanted her ashes put in father's grave. So we are having a gathering of the Johns Clan on Wednesday 27th May for a short service at 3pm; internment of the ashes and Tea at the W.I Hall. Anyone who remembers any of us is welcome to come and have a cuppa and a chat. I hope to have some photos of Ringmore and Challaborough in the 40's and 50's
